Research

Research is the base for all our centre activities. Generating knowledge about old and young, small and large family businesses from across the globe provides us with new content to share at our various events and activities. Whether it is understanding the uniqueness of family firms, their impact on regional economies or how to solve the challenges of generational transition, our research is the key to remain a world-leading centre for family enterprises.

Morten Bennedsen

Academic Director of the INSEAD Wendel International Centre for Family Enterprise, The André and Rosalie Hoffmann Chaired Professor of Family Enterprise

INSEAD's activities in family business started in 1997, when the Large Family Firm Chair was founded by Wendel with the purpose of studying the unique dynamics of family enterprises. In the same year, the first cohort of students attended the MBA Family Business Elective. Two decades later the Centre has grown into a leading international resource for family business learning and we are continuously generating and sharing knowledge that benefit family businesses.

We talked about so many things and realized that we should talk a lot more. It's a mixture of spending time together as a family and structured class learning – like I had at business school – that makes the programme so special.

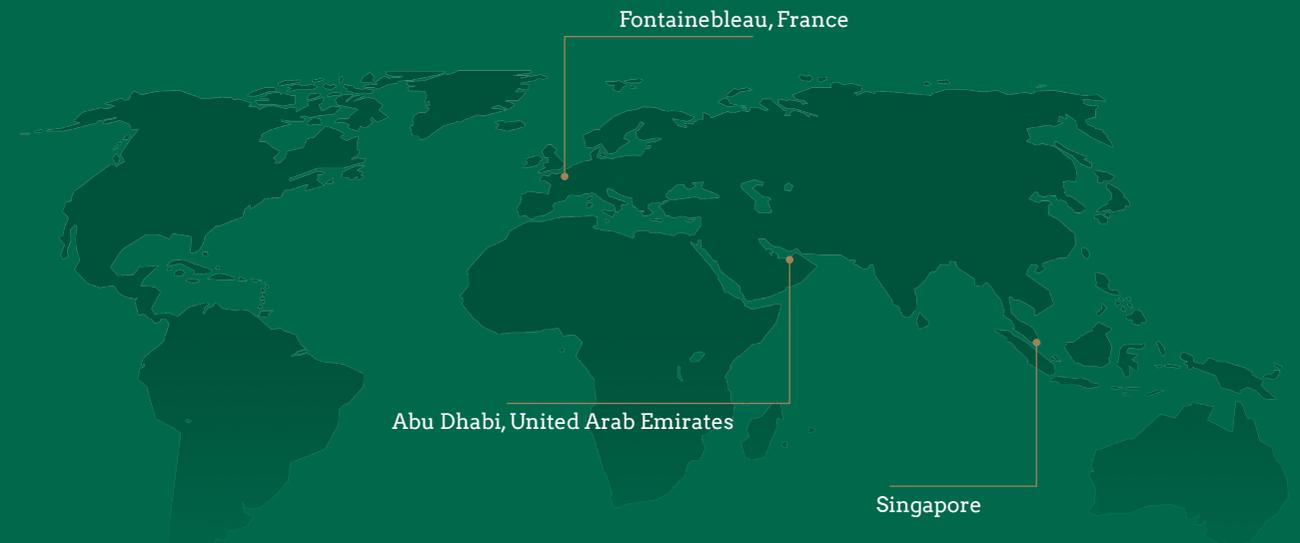

Ada Polla, CEO Alchimie Forever
former Family Enterprise Challenge participant

In the Family Enterprise Challenge Programme the great thing is that the family teams who attend learn together and from each other. Their motivation and passion for their families and businesses drive the programme. There is a real sense of sharing and helping each other.

Randel Carlock,
Programme Director, Family Enterprise Challenge,
Berghmans Lhoist Chaired Professor in Entrepreneurial Leadership

A global presence

Every gift makes a difference

The Centre is pleased to recognize contributors at all levels.

INSEAD activities in the field of family business were initiated thanks to Wendel, and further developed with support from other family businesses and individuals, in particular the Tetra Laval Research Fund for the Large Family Firm, the Berghmans Lhoist Chair in Entrepreneurial Leadership, and the André and Rosalie Hoffmann Chair and Research Fund in Family Enterprise.
