

JOHN BOWLES

John Bowles has spent his entire life Storytelling as an accomplished performer. He literally grew up on a weekly television variety program in Australia; every Saturday night for six years, singing and dancing his way into the hearts of . He emerged as an adult theatre performer touring the world in major theatre productions like CATS and Phantom of the Opera. In his varied career he has worked in all aspects of the entertainment industry including, recording, producing, directing and presenting.

STORYTELLING – THE HOW, WHAT & WHY!

Regardless of what career you end up following, your ability to communicate is paramount. Using storytelling can help you take it to another level.

In this thought-provoking workshop, John Bowles uses his extensive stage and television experience to both bring alive the practical techniques that will unlock your communication skills, and also give you greater confidence to use storytelling in compelling ways; this will be an important foundation for you to use and develop your entire career.